THREATENED REVOLUTION IN CHINA.

A THOUGHTFUL REVOLUTIONIST.

The following letter reached our office yesterday by post from Canton. It may be regarded as a joke. We have heard so much of revolutions in China during the past ten years that we have become sceptical not only of the sincerity of the would-be revolutionists but of the likelihood at any time of a force of Chinese sufficiently honest to trust each other being brought together in such numbers as to overpower the power of the authorities at Peking. If this letter were meant seriously, we fancy even a Chinaman has a strong enough sense of the ludicrous to see how absurd it is to give these periodical warnings of revolutions that never come, for this is not the first nor the second letter we have received from the same source. We will believe in the earnestness of the reform party of South China, when, regardless of consequences, it substitutes the sword for the pen, and seeking to improve the condition of the people of China, commences its reform movement by lopping off the rotten branches of the mandarin system in and around Canton.

There is a fine field for indiscriminate slaughter in Canton. We preach this doctrine of wholesale murder as a preliminary to reform in China because we know it will not be taken seriously any more than our correspondent's letter, which is as follows:—

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "CHINA MAIL."

Canton, China, 9th February, 1900.

Sir, A great revolution is brewing in China, for the overthrow of the usurping Manchus. The seeds of rebellion have been sown broadcast, and are already bearing fruit. Favourable responses have been received from the Provinces, and from nearly all the Foreign Countries where our brethren dwell.

The year 1900 and the succeeding years will witness a great change in China, a change which with God's help we trust will be welcome to the Foreign Powers, and beneficial to the vast and increasing trade of the Orient.

We are human and confess that the beginning will not be without its troubles and disappointments. We are a nation of 400,000,000, raw in certain respects, but in judging us it must be remembered that iron can be smelted and then welded into polished tempered steel.

Our leaders have been educated and trained abroad, and we have the sympathy and support of numerous influential friends in England, America and Japan.

Since the usurpation of the Manchus the whole nation, led by its blind guides has sunk deeper and deeper into the quagmire of corruption. To gratify her whims the ignorant and arrogant Empress Dowager has brought our Ancient Empire to the very verge of ruin, and the deposition of Kwang Su emphasizes the personal and sinister influence of
